SO WHAT ELSE'S COVID-19 RESPONSE AND IMPACT

On March 9, 2020, SWE launched the EMERGENCY HUNGER RELIEF PROGRAM. Our team currently distributes 250,000 meals per week in addition to water, PPE, educational supplies and baby supplies to 89,000 individuals at 85 sites. Our food access model offers neighborhood pop up pantries, a walk up food pantry and emergency home deliveries across the Baltimore-Washington DC Metro Area.

Montgomery County

Our "walk-up" food pantry is located in North Bethesda, MD and rescues over 250,000 pounds of food per week. In addition to making 550 emergency deliveries per week, our pantry serves over 415,000 meals to 500 families & saves 30 tons of food from being dumped in landfills.

Baltimore City

The SWE Baltimore Chapter hosts more than 20 distributions, serving over 400,000 meals per month. In addition SWE Baltimore operates a Resource Center, a one stop shop for food, clothing, basic necessities, diapers.

Frederick County

The SWE Frederick Chapter is our newest addition, serving 1,200 families healthy meals and groceries 1 times per month.

Washington, DC

So What Else currently hosts 10 youth development programs at our sites in DC, in addition to creating food security for 2,500 families every week.

Prince George's County

So What Else delivers to 8 different communities in Prince George's County, providing food security for over 1,000 families.
